1. Position summary

This position manages the policy, advocacy and research unit and is a key member of the senior leadership team. The role has overall responsibility for shaping and delivering MHR's policy influencing strategy, building the organisation's evidence base, producing high quality submissions, developing and ensuring strong stakeholder engagement, and assisting MHR to deliver on its strategic plan.

2. About Mental Health Reform:

Mental Health Reform (MHR) is the national coalition driving reform of Ireland's mental health services and supports. Our vision is of an Ireland where everyone can access the support that they need in their community to achieve their best possible mental health. With over 80-member organisations and thousands of individual supporters, MHR provides a coordinated voice to Government, its agencies, the Oireachtas and the general public on mental health issues. For more information, see <https://www.mentalhealthreform.ie/>

Main responsibilities

a) Developing and implementing MHR's policy reform agenda

- Lead the development of organisational policy positions, ensuring they are evidence-informed, rights-based and aligned with the UN Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities (UNCRPD).
- Provide strategic direction, oversight and coordination of MHR's policy reform agenda
- Plan and organise our policy and advocacy work by overseeing objectives, key results, and action plans, and ensure that we deliver on those plans

- Lead the deepening and strengthening of MHR's influencing and advocacy agendas and approaches
- Develop and implement political advocacy strategies and identify key influencing targets with a view to influencing Mental Health policy and amplifying Mental Health Reform's voice and work
- Oversee and assist the policy team in developing and coordinating lobbying strategies to deliver positive policy change
- Champion the meaningful participation and leadership of people with lived and living experience of mental health difficulties, ensuring their voices are central to the development of policy positions, advocacy priorities, research, and organisational decision-making.
- Ensure policy positions are coherent with the views and experiences of mental health service users and family members through regular consultations
- Proactively monitor relevant developments in Irish and international mental health policy, practice and law
- Ensure MHR is producing high quality policy submissions and briefings.
- Conduct regular consultation with MHR's member organisations, advisory groups and international and national experts
- Collaborate with the communications team to deliver advocacy campaigns and events.
- Chair MHRs Policy & Advocacy Working Group

b) Building Mental Health Reform's evidence base

- Provide oversight and coordination of MHR's research agenda
- Proactively develop and maintain relationships with key academic institutions, identifying opportunities to work jointly
- Oversee and contribute to the design of research
- Oversee and conduct desk and empirical research as necessary
- Ensure robustness and rigour in MHR's research and policy work including regular engagement with the Research Advisory Committee (RAC)
- Identify funding opportunities and write research grant applications

c) Developing and strengthening partnerships and political engagement

- Develop and maintain a network of contacts to inform and increase the impact of our work.
- Consult regularly with members, people with lived experiences, peer organisations, allies and other relevant actors in order to stay current with trends and to ensure that MHR's research, policy and advocacy agendas are responsive to these trends
- Represent MHR in cross-departmental consultative forums and at public events
- Deliver training sessions and workshops as needed to a range of audiences and stakeholders.
- Plan and organise work to build MHR's credibility, influence and relationships with members of the Oireachtas and political advisers, in support of Mental Health Reform's policy priority issues.
- Monitor opportunities within the Oireachtas for MHR to advance its agenda – debates, committee meetings, consultations etc. Advise on and coordinate responses to these opportunities in collaboration with colleagues as appropriate

- Develop and implement a monitoring system to oversee MHRs relationships and interactions with key Oireachtas stakeholder (TDs, Senators, committees, staff etc.) to enable reporting and evaluation.

d) Assisting MHR to deliver on its overall strategic goals

- Work within the framework of the overall objectives and the policies and practices of MHR
- Ensure all work undertaken complies with data protection and GDPR rules
- Contribute to the promotion of equality of opportunity, anti-discriminatory practice, diversity, individual rights and choice in all aspects of work
- Carry out other administrative duties as required
- Lead, manage and coach staff within the MHR performance management system
- Supervise staff, interns and/or volunteers as required
- Participate in relevant training and development courses as agreed with the CEO
- Undertake such other duties as might be reasonably assigned from time to time by the CEO
- Be vigilant to any Health, Safety and Welfare risks in the workplace and bring any concerns to the attention of the CEO or Health & Safety Representative
